

Cathy Clark

Cathy's primary ministry focus is the spiritual care of those who are in crisis, those who are dying or grieving a loss, and those in the community who need the compassion and love of Christ. Her long career in public service has taken her to positions in federal, provincial and municipal governments. For the past 10 years she has been the Emergency Manager for the County of Simcoe, just north of Toronto, responding to tornadoes, floods, ice storms, Syrian refugees, and other crises. Cathy is an ordained Elder in the Presbyterian Church in Canada, leads her church's Pastoral Care Team and virtual Prayer Ministry, is a member of its Leading with Care Team safeguarding the vulnerable, and provides pulpit supply for several area churches. She is privileged to provide volunteer chaplaincy services to a long-term care home and a regional hospital. Married with two adult daughters in her spare time, Cathy sings in her church choir, plays alto sax in a community band, snowshoes, paddles, reads voraciously, and travels extensively.
